Ecclesiastes 3:11

Saints Alive! Fr. Ray's favorite Saints this week...

June 24: Birth of St. John the Baptist (30+). St. John the Baptist would later say, "I must decrease that he might increase." St. Augustine notes that it is fitting to celebrate the Baptist's birth on this day, since, after the birthday of John, the days grow shorter, after the birth of Jesus, the days get longer.

June 25: St. Prosper d'Aquitaine (465+) is the hero of the grace controversy – standing with Augustine over and against the Semi-Pelagians. He is the patron of theologians who are not bishops or priests. He died in Rome as the secretary to Pope Leo the Great.

June 26: SS. John and Paul (362+) were brother martyrs whose relics were deposited on the Coelian Hill in Rome since the 4th century. Some of the frescoes at this church date back to the 2nd century! We recite their names in the first canon of the Mass. St José María Escribá (1902-1975) had a divine vision in 1928 concerning the founding of "Opus Dei", or "the Work." This (primarily) lay movement was finally approved in 1983 as a personal prelature of the Holy See. I hope to pray at his tomb at the Villa Tevere in Rome this December.

June 27: St. Cyril of Alexandria (376-444). Cyril championed the title of Mary as Teotokos, "Mother of God" or "God-bearer" in order to highlight the reality of the Incarnation. As Patriarch of Alexandria, he drove out all who disagreed with him spiritually: orthodoxy at all costs started in 412.

June 28: St. Irenaeus de Lyons (125-202) grew up in Smyrna, was greatly influenced by St. Polycarp, then moved to Lyons in Gaul, with many other Greek merchants, and became bishop of this thriving community. He fought Gnosticism in all forms and called for their "stripping of the fox".

June 29: SS Peter and Paul (64+). Earliest representations show Peter as sturdy and thickset, with a curly beard, and Paul as thin and bald, with a long head, scanty beard and deep-set eyes. Could it be a living memory?

June 30: Martyrs of Rome under Nero (64-68+) only since 1969 has this feast been moved to the day after SS Peter and Paul – as we remember July 19th of 64, and the fires that broke out in Rome. The fire raged for 7 days and nights: 2/3rds of Rome was destroyed. Christians were martyred and singled-out as the scapegoats in Nero's palace gardens for the amusement of the nightly crowds. Nero committed suicide four years later.

Natural Family Planning Education (NFP) is a unique form of fertility awareness that is moral, natural and healthy, modern and scientifically reliable. Learn how to identify and understand signs of fertility. This information helps engaged and married couples plan to achieve or postpone a pregnancy. NFP is morally good because it respects God's design for married love. Beautifully enhances couple communication and commitment and keeps chemicals and devices out of your body. Ongoing classes offered—please contact Kathleen Davila for more information at 904-434-8848 email davila1@md.metrocast.net Be in perfect harmony, body and soul in marriage!

We are very excited to welcome our Pilgrim Statue of Fatima to her new home at St. John's Church. We invite you also to say "YES" to Our Lady's invitation to visit your home in a very special way. Some of you may be familiar with similar programs. With that said we invite you to take the Statue of Our Lady home and place it in a prominent place in your home on a weekly basis. There will be a sign-up sheet with more information in the back of the church next to the St. Cecilia statue. If you have any questions, you can contact Deacon Ammon Ripple.

"Let us respond to Our Lady's call for Prayer and Reparation to restore peace in the world and holiness in family life."
