MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of St. John Francis Regis Parish is to foster a family of faith, built on yesterday's foundation, so that today's spirituality, service, and education will continue to grow into tomorrow's Catholic community.

"Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and tomorrow."

St. Lawrence of Brindisi

Ecclesiastes 3:1-2, 8

For everything there is a season,
and a time for every purpose
under heaven: a time to be born,
and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted. A time to love, and a time to hate; a time for war, and a time for peace.

Saints Alive!

July 20: St. Apollinaris.

Centuries after his death, he appeared in a vision to Saint Romuald and revealed himself as the first bishop of Ravenna and martyr for the faith. His apse mosaic depiction in Chasse is nothing short of breathtaking. In 1969, he was taken off the calendar but good old St. JP II put him back in 2002.

July 21: St. Lawrence of Brindisi (1559-1619). This Franciscan was a brilliant linguist and scripture scholar who quickly rose from obscurity in Verona to notoriety as chaplain General of the Army. He led the troops into battle against the Turks and saved Hungary in 1601. He sometimes took three hours to say Mass and handkerchiefs used to wipe away his copious tears during Mass quickly became relics. He wrote beautifully about our Lady as dispenser of every grace. He was buried in Northern Spain at Villafranca del Bierzo.

July 22: St. Mary Magdalene

(first century). Luke 8:3 says it all – she who is the first saint exorcized from demons would become the first to share the Good News of the risen Lord on Easter morn. Because of my love for Provence, France, I like to think that her skull and jaw bone are indeed in the gold reliquary at St. Maximin-la-Sainte-Baume.

July 23: St. Bridget of Sweden

(1303-1373) was a happily married mother of 8 until her husband Ulf Gudmarsson died on the way to Compostela on pilgrimage. Her mystic visions and revelations haunt the world today. She is the patron of calamitous pilgrimages; she was shipwrecked on the way to a pilgrimage to the holy land. She died on the corner of the Palazzo Farnese next to the French Embassy and I pray at this site when in Rome.

July 24: St. Sharbel Mahklouf.

(1828-1898) was a Maronite monk and priest from Lebanon. During his life he was seen as a wonder worker of great supernatural grace. In the 1996 World Youth Day in Paris, I met a super group of Lebanese teenagers who sang the praises of their special patron. He has been a friend since then! I'd love to go to Lebanon.

Woe to the shepherds who destroy and scatter the flock of my pasture—oracle of the LORD. Therefore, thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, against the shepherds who shepherd my people: You have scattered my sheep and driven them away. You have not cared for them, but I will take care to punish your evil deeds.

~Jeremiah 23:1-2
