MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of St. John Francis Regis Parish is to foster a family of faith, built on yesterday's foundation, so that today's spirituality, service, and education will continue to grow into tomorrow's Catholic community.

"Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and tomorrow."

Saints Alive!

July 17: St. Marcellina (330-400) was St. Ambrose's big sister and discerned a vocation as a vowed virgin. I prayed at her tomb at a side chapel at Sant' Ambrogio, Milan.

And wait, St. Leo IV (855) these were the 'good old days' when the pope organized and routed the Saracens in their pirate raids in the decisive sea battle of Ostia in 849.

But wait! The Martyrs of Compiègne (1794), 16 religious sisters - primarily Carmelites - were guillotined this day in Paris for being "enemies of the people" and "inspiring superstition."

But wait. Bd Peter ToRot (1912-1945) was a married catechist (his wife was Paula) during the Japanese occupation of Papua New Guinea, who was executed by lethal injection for opposing the re-introduction of polygamy laws.

July 20: St. Apollinaris.

Centuries after his death, he appeared in a vision to Saint Romuald and revealed himself as the first bishop of Ravenna and martyr for the faith. His apse mosaic depiction in Chasse is nothing short of breathtaking. In 1969, he was taken off the calendar but good old St. JP II put him back in 2002.

July 21: St. Lawrence of Brindisi (1559-1619). This Franciscan was a brilliant linguist and scripture scholar who quickly rose from obscurity in Verona to notoriety as chaplain General of the Army. He led the troops into battle against the Turks and saved Hungary in 1601. He sometimes took three hours to say Mass and handkerchiefs used to wipe away his copious tears during Mass quickly became relics. He wrote beautifully about our Lady as dispenser of every grace. He was buried in Northern Spain at Villafranca del Bierzo.

July 22: St. Mary Magdalene

(first century). Luke 8:3 says it all – she who is the first saint exorcized from demons would become the first to share the Good News of the risen Lord on Easter morn. Because of my love for Provence, France, I like to think that her skull and jaw bone are indeed in the gold reliquary at St. Maximin-la-Sainte-Baume.

July 23: St. Bridget of Sweden

(1303-1373) was a happily married mother of 8 until her husband Ulf Gudmarsson died on the way to Compostela on pilgrimage. Her mystic visions and revelations haunt the world today. She is the patron of calamitous pilgrimages; she was shipwrecked on the way to a pilgrimage to the holy land. She died on the corner of the Palazzo Farnese next to the French Embassy and I pray at this site when in Rome.
