MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of St. John Francis Regis Parish is to foster a family of faith, built on yesterday's foundation,

so that today's spirituality, service, and education will continue to grow into tomorrow's Catholic community.

"Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and tomorrow."

St. Albert the Great

Ecclesiastes 3:1-2, 8

For everything there is a season, and a time for every purpose under heaven: a time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted. A time to love, and a time to hate; a time for war, and a time for peace.

ST. JOHN FRANCIS REGIS

Saints Alive!

Nov. 18: St Rose Philippine Duchesne (1769-1852)

When she arrived as a missionary sister in St. Louis Mo., her first act was to build a shrine to St. John Francis Regis, for whom she has a great devotion. Her body is enshrined in St. Charles, Mo.

Nov. 21: St. Gelasius I (496+) I like popes who write about the importance of bishops who have a "duty to devote 1/4 of their income to charity".

St. Albert de Louvain (1166-1192) was the bishop of Liege who was butchered by German knights at the direct request of the Emperor Henry VI. His relics are in the Carmelite church in Bruxelles.

Nov 15: St. Albert the Great (1206-1280). Called the 'miracle and wonder of his age' – he became the professor for St. Thomas Aquinas. He presumably died of Alzheimer's at the age of 74. I hope to visit his shrine in St. Andrea's crypt, (Cologne) someday.

Nov 16: St. Margaret of Scotland (1045-1093). Persecution by the Normans and Danes caused this Hungarian princess to seek security at the court of King Malcolm of Scotland. She was happily married 25 years with 8 children. Her relics were safely carried to El Escorial, near Madrid.

Nov. 17: St. Elizabeth of Hungary (1207-1231) Widowed at the age of 20, she was tireless in caring for the sick, poor and elderly in the hospice, she built next to her house in Marburg. A 3rd order Franciscan, she wore the habit till death. She was canonized just 4 years after her death and the Elisabethkirche in Marburg became a place of great pilgrimage. (My 'Schmidt' ancestors lived right up the road in Bracht.)

THANKSGIVING DAY COLLECTION FOR ST. JOHN'S CHARITABLE SOCIETY

The Thanksgiving Day Collection, on November 26th, is a special collection for the benefit of the works of the St. John's Charitable Society (SJCS). It affords a unique opportunity for parishioners to share their material blessings with those in need.

As the pandemic continues and winter approaches, your gift can provide hope to people in need in your local St. Mary's community. Your donation helps to:

- Keep electricity and water on,
- Provide heating oil/gas, and
- Prevent eviction.

SJCS callers are often elderly, disabled, and single mothers with children. Last year, SJCS provided assistance to 191 families or individuals facing difficult times due to unemployment, sickness, disability, or unexpected set-backs.

This Season Give Thanks
by Giving the Gift of Hope!

on its own unless it remains on the vine, so neither can you unless you remain in me.

Christmas Angel Giving Tree

As with many things this year, the Christmas Angel Giving Tree, sponsored by the St. John's Charitable Society, has had to make some adjustments because of COVID-19. Instead of the traditional tree with tags in the Msgr. Harris Center foyer we are implementing an online list. Starting Nov 9th, Parishioners will be able to sponsor a gift using Signup Genius available at:

<https://www.signupgenius.com/go/10C0D49ACA622A0F8C70-thegiving>.

(It is not necessary to have a Signup Genius Account.) If you are unable to sign up online, you also have the option of contacting Tracey at (412)759-1010 or tsnicholson61@gmail.com and she can help you pick out a gift and sign up.

Gift Items and Tag #s will be pre-loaded with details, including description of recipient. If desired, parishioners may sign up anonymously. There will be both children and elderly gift options available. All gifts should be returned Unwrapped, and if possible, indicate with a piece of paper attached, the tag number of the gift.

Once you have purchased your gift and are ready to return it, you have the following options:

Box located in Msgr Harris Center foyer before 5 PM Sat Masses till after 11 AM Sun Masses starting the weekend of Nov 14-15 and ending the weekend of Dec 5-6

Box in the school (for students/staff use only) on Dec 4th
Two Dates for Drive-by Drop Offs in front of Msgr Harris Center:

After Masses on Nov 22nd (8:00 AM to Noon)
After School on Dec. 4th (3:15 PM to 5:00 PM)

For some, Christmas can be a season of anxiety and hopelessness. Please help turn their pain into one of joy and renewed faith in the kindness of others!
