Saints Alive!

Blessed Anne of St. Bartholomew
Pray for us!

June 1: St. Justin Martyr (100-165). Oh yes. The man. He was a Greek from Samaria (Shechem) who travelled as a visiting philosopher from Ephesus to Alexandria. In Ephesus, an old, respectable, meek man spoke to him about the Christ and “my spirit was immediately set on fire, and affection for the friends of Christ took hold of me.” He was executed in Rome by Marcus Aurelius with 6 others. Again, I love authentic witnesses who on their tabula rasa wrote the account of his martyrdom.

June 2: The Martyrs of Lyons (177+). Oh yes. Again, authentic eyewitnesses record the ghastly execution of these martyrs: Sanctus, Blandina, Maturus, Attalus. The dungeon and amphitheater where they suffered and died can still be visited in Lyons, France.

June 3: St. Charles Lwanga and companions (1886+) were pages at the court of King Mwanga who refused to give the king the sexual favors he demanded. Charles became the head catechist and baptized the younger of the pages at night before the 22 Catholics and 24 Protestants were marched 16 miles to the place of execution on Lake Victoria in Uganda.

June 4: St. Quirinus (308), the bishop in what is now Sisak, Croatia was seized for the crime of being a Christian, was marched to what is now Hungary and was martyred there. His true relics were brought to Rome in the early fifth century and are now venerated at Santa Maria in Trastevere. St. Jerome (from Dalmatia) proudly speaks of this fellow countryman.

June 5: St. Boniface (675-754) is called the apostle of Germany. He was from England and left with a missionary monastic band to evangelize central Germany. I hope to see his relics in Fulda, along with his bloodied breviary still bearing the hatchet marks of his martyrdom.

June 6: St. Norbert (1080-1134) was a blasé nobleman till he was knocked off his horse in a violent thunderstorm. The conversion was sudden and complete. He sold everything and went to Rome to confess his misdeeds to the pope himself. He founded the Premonstratensians and his relics were preserved from Lutheran Magdeburg by moving them to Catholic Strabov.

June 7: Blessed Anne of St. Bartholomew (1626) St. Teresa of Avila repeatedly talks about her special companion as a great servant of God. Teresa died in Anne’s arms. After Teresa’s death Anne helped open convents from Paris to Antwerp. When she died, this sister had 20,000 show up for her funeral: not bad for a cloistered disalced Carmelite nun!

“A time to die, a time to mourn...”

“A time to embrace, a time to love...”

“A time to heal...”

“A time of peace, and a time of war...”

Ecclesiastes 3:1-2, 8

For everything there is a season,
and a time for every purpose
under heaven: a time to be born,
and a time to die; a time to plant,
and a time to pluck up that which is planted. A time to love, and a time to hate; a time for war, and a time for peace.

We are praying for our military families
at home, and abroad.

At Pentecost, due to grace and the power of the Holy Spirit, people who would have been separated by language and nationality were brought together. This unity is a characteristic of the Church. Pentecost traditionally marks the beginning of the Church and reminds us that the Church is meant for all peoples.
