MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of St. John Francis Regis Parish is to foster a family of faith, built on yesterday's foundation, so that today's spirituality, service, and education will continue to grow into tomorrow's Catholic community.

"Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and tomorrow."

Bd. Pier Giorgio Frassati

July 4: Bd. Pier Giorgio Frassati (1901-1925) was deeply spiritual, ardently political, easygoing, extroverted, warm, a keen mountaineer and sportsman and noted for his charity to the poor in Torino. So popular – his relics have been moved next to the Shroud of Turin in the Cathedral.

July 5: St. Isabelle of Portugal (1271-1336) was married at the age of 12 to an adulterous king and simply exuded goodness, no matter what came her way. As a widow, she became a Poor Clare (Franciscan) in Coïmbra. We prayed at her tomb on the way to Fatima.

July 6: St. Maria Goretti (1890-1902). We've been to her relic's shrine and I said Mass over her tomb. She is so beloved and seems so alive to me, that I keep forgetting that she was martyred for purity 116 years ago. It is her visits to people beyond the grave that stir the heart. She calls on people to forgive their persecutors. I was given her relics (with documentary papers) while on pilgrimage. We will venerate her relics this Friday at Mass.

July 8: SS. Kilian and Companions (689) came from Mullagh – near the Cavan/Meath border (where the Reilly side of my family hails) and would evangelize and become martyrs in Würzburg. Their three heads were enshrined in the cathedral. Like John the Baptist – Kilian was killed for telling the local neophyte chief that his marriage was against God's law.

July 9: St. Veronica Guiliani (1660-1727). A long time before she died, this Franciscan 'mystic of the passion' drew a picture of her heart that showed where the Lord had imprinted the instruments of the passion. A post-mortem showed objects in the right ventricle that corresponded exactly. Her case is the most remarkable of mystical phenomena.

July 10: Bd Emmanuel Ruiz and Companions (1860). The Druse (an ancient Syrian Muslim sect) took exception to the presence of Christianity. Step 1) all Christians were forbidden to bear arms; 2) 14 thousand Christians were murdered. Among them, this Spanish Franciscan in Damascus.

Ecclesiastes 3:1-2, 8

For everything there is a season,
and a time for every purpose
under heaven: a time to be born,
and a time to die; a time to plant,
and a time to pluck up that which is planted. A time to love, and a time to hate; a time for war, and a time for peace.
