Saints Alive!

St. Ignatius Loyola
Pray for us!

July 26: SS Joachim and Anne (first century). Three different popes have given relics of St. Anne’s finger and forearm to the shrine of Beaupré, Québec and the miracles have been stupendous.

July 27: St Raimundo Zanfogni (nicknamed Palmarius 1140-1200). His 1st pilgrimage at the age of 15 changed the life of this married cobbler and father of 5. When they died, he became a devoté to pilgrimage, then to the care for the sick. I hope to visit his relic shrine in Piacenza someday.

July 28: Pope St Victor I (198). Oh, let’s just celebrate cool African-born popes and pray for more of them! He actually got the Emperor’s mistress to release all Christians condemned to work in the Sardinian salt mines. Cool.

July 29: St. Martha, Mary and Lazarus (first century). Practical minded Martha! Concerned that her sister Mary is not helping her with the details of hospitality! Concerned that there will be a smell since it is the fourth day since her brother Lazarus’ burial! How she is loved by the townsfolk of Tarascon in Provence -- where the principal church is named for “Ste. Marthe” and her (supposed) relics are venerated.

July 30: St. Peter Chrysologus (380-450). The empress Galla Placidia took a liking to this archbishop of Ravenna and he was eventually nick-named ‘Chrysologus’ (golden-worded in Greek) for the human warmth and divine fervor of his sermons. He was declared a doctor of the church in 1729.

July 31: St. Ignatius Loyola (1491-1556). Not only at the Gesù in Rome at his relics shrine, but also in Montmartre in Paris (where he was ordained). I have prayed that this founder of the Jesuits would watch over our parish -- founded by the Jesuits some 135 years after his death. When Ignatius read ‘Lives of the Saints’ it set off a global phenome back in 1521 – just saying...

August 1: St. Alfonso de’ Liguori (1696-1787). At his relic’s shrine in the church of San Alfonso in Pagano, I felt nothing. But after touring his suite of rooms and museum, I could feel him close to me. He is now one of my faves. His book ‘Selva’ put the fear of God in me back around 1989.

Ecclesiastes 3:1-2, 8

For everything there is a season, and a time for every purpose under heaven: a time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted. A time to love, and a time to hate; a time for war, and a time for peace.

We are praying for our military families
at home, and abroad.

Celebrate the 125th anniversary of the dedication of St. John's church building on Friday July 28th, 7pm!

To celebrate the 125th anniversary of the dedication of the church building Mr. Hellerman will be directing an ensemble of local singers and instrumentalists in a concert performance of Vivaldi's masterpiece Gloria. This 30 minute piece will be followed by 30 minutes of exposition of the blessed sacrament and benediction. The Knights of Columbus will provide a reception in the gym at the conclusion.

This anniversary event will look back on the past 125 years and also look forward to the next 125 years, as we begin to reveal new details on the exciting revitalization project for St. John's!

DC Hood

Come out Thursday evening, July 20th, at 6:30 pm, for the DC Hood Basketball Game!

The DC Hood is a team of priests and seminarians from the Archdiocese of Washington. They will be playing a team of St. John's Summer Program instructors.

During halftime, one of the priests will give a short talk and there will be activities for children. Immediately following the game, we'll enjoy pizza and drinks with the priests and seminarians.

It's been nearly ten years since our last DC Hood basketball game, which was a fun and engaging evening for families, and we're excited to welcome them back to St. John's.

Please join us for an evening of fun for the entire family!
