Ecclesiastes 3:11

Saints Alive! Fr. Ray's favorite Saints this week...

July 8: SS. Kilian and Companions (689) came from Mullagh – near the Cavan/Meath border (where the Reilly side of my family hails) and would evangelize and become martyrs in Würzburg. Their three heads were enshrined in the cathedral. Like John the Baptist – Kilian was killed for telling the local neophyte chief that his marriage was against God's law.

July 9: St. Veronica Guilianni (1660-1727). A long time before she died, this Franciscan 'mystic of the passion' drew a picture of her heart that showed where the Lord had imprinted the instruments of the passion. A post-mortem showed objects in the right ventricle that corresponded exactly. Her case is the most remarkable of mystical phenomena.

July 10: Bd Emmanuel Ruiz and companions (1860). The Druse (an ancient Syrian Muslim sect) took exception to the presence of Christianity. Step 1) all Christians were forbidden to bear arms; 2) 14 thousand Christians were murdered. Among them, this Spanish Franciscan in Damascus.

July 11: St. Benedict of Nursia (480-550) this Patriarch of Western monasticism and patron of all Europe left the decadence of Rome for the caves of Subiaco then the heights of Monte Cassino. All Benedictines honor his memory with that of his twin sister, Scholastica. I've prayed in Subiaco once and in Monte Cassino three times.

July 12: St. Giovanni Gualbert (990-1073). I know him through the wonderful Early Renaissance Florentine artwork celebrating his miracles.

July 13: Bd. Clelia Barbieri (1847-1870) is one of the most attractive women saints. Though she died at the age of 23 from TB outside of Bologna, she had a continuous awareness of the presence of God and a constant intimate conversation with him. Her photograph says it all. I love this gal.

July 14: St. Kateri Tekakwitha (1656-1680) known as Lily of the Mohawks was an Algonquin-Mohawk laywoman from Auriesville, NY who abandoned her pagan family to follow Christ under the direction of the French Jesuits outside of Montreal.

EDUCATION

Natural Family Planning Education (NFP) is a unique form of fertility awareness that is moral, natural and healthy, modern and scientifically reliable. Learn how to identify and understand signs of fertility. This information helps engaged and married couples plan to achieve or postpone a pregnancy. NFP is morally good because it respects God's design for married love. Beautifully enhances couple communication and commitment and keeps chemicals and devices out of your body. Ongoing classes offered—please contact Kathleen Davila for more information at 904-434-8848 email davila1@md.metrocast.net Be in perfect harmony, body and soul in marriage!

We are very excited to welcome our Pilgrim Statue of Fatima to her new home at St. John's Church. We invite you also to say "YES" to Our Lady's invitation to visit your home in a very special way. Some of you may be familiar with similar programs. With that said we invite you to take the Statue of Our Lady home and place it in a prominent place in your home on a weekly basis. There will be a sign-up sheet with more information in the back of the church next to the St. Cecilia statue. If you have any questions, you can contact Deacon Ammon Ripple.
