MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of St. John Francis Regis Parish is to foster a family of faith, built on yesterday's foundation, so that today's spirituality, service, and education will continue to grow into tomorrow's Catholic community.

"Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and tomorrow."

Saints Alive!

St. Cecilia,
Pray for us!

Nov. 21: St. Gelasius I (496+) I like popes who write about the importance of bishops who have a “duty to devote ¼ of their income to charity”. St. Albert de Louvain (1166-1192) was the bishop of Liege who was butchered by German knights at the direct request of the Emperor Henry VI. His relics are in the Carmelite church in Bruxelles.

November 22: St. Cecilia (200-230) Survives in popular imagination as the patron saint of music who sang to God in her heart on the day of her wedding to her betrothed, Valerian. Angels placed a crown of flowers on the heads of these soon-to-be martyrs. A church in Trastevere in Rome was dedicated to a Cecilia. I placed the statue under the choir loft steps to honor Pat Suit and her love of music.

November 23: St. Clement (c. 100) wrote the ‘Epistle to the Corinthians’ around the year 95 as Pope in Rome and is honored by the legend that he was drowned – but his body recovered – by SS. Cyril and Methodius—and buried in the Roman Church of San Clements. St Columbanus (543-615) is a brilliant Irish missionary monk who evangelized and set up monasteries through Gaul before dying in Bobbio (the citadel of faith and learning), I hope to pray at his tomb someday. I was always impressed by the Columban Fathers as a youth. Bd. Miguel Pro (1891-1927) escaped from Pancho Villa by fleeing into Texas then Los Gatos, California for a year. He was ordained in Belgium and returned to Mexico City where he was martyred. He is the first martyr to be filmed while being executed.

November 24: St. Chrysogonus (304+) is a martyr mentioned in the first Eucharistic prayer who seems to have died in Aquileia, and I like his church in Trastevere. Also St. Andrew Dũng-Lac (1795-1839) and 117 companions were but a few of those Catholic martyrs of Vietnam.

November 25: St. Catherine of Alexandria (early fourth century). Known as Great Martyr Catherine of the Wheel, she is the Egyptian patron saint of woman philosophers – taken off the calendar by St. Paul VI, and put back by St. JP II!

November 26: St. Leonardo da Porto Maurizio (1676- 1751). Missionary Franciscan who used the Stations of the Cross as his most effective tool to win hearts. He’s the one who set them up in the Colosseum in Rome. His relics shrine is right there at the Forum and I keep missing it!

November 27: St. Maximus de Riez (460). French monk of Provence who was dragged from the island monastery of Lérins and forced to be bishop of Riez because of his holiness.

Ecclesiastes 3:1-2, 8

For everything there is a season,
and a time for every purpose
under heaven: a time to be born,
and a time to die; a time to plant,
and a time to pluck up that which is planted. A time to love, and a time to hate; a time for war, and a time for peace.

The St. John's Charitable Society (SJCS) continues to serve our community through the aid of your donations. Unfortunately, the charitable funds throughout the community including here at the SJCS are running low.

We need your help to continue to serve the needy in our community. As many local organizations are experiencing heavier than normal volume of calls for help, we are finding that many of our callers need more help financially than we are able to provide. The chart below shows how SJCS has answered the call for aid in our local community, helping the needy avoid eviction or water and electricity shut off.

We ask that you consider donating to the St. John's Charitable Society so we can continue to assist the local St. Mary's residents. At SJCS we are grateful for your continued financial support and prayers as we help those in need.

This weeks Eucharistic Miracle: Lanciano Italy, 750 A.D.

“A monastic priest doubted whether the Body of Our Lord was truly present in the consecrated Host. He celebrated Mass and when he said the words of consecration, he saw the Host turn into Flesh and the Wine turn into Blood. Everything was visible to those in attendance. The Flesh and Blood is still intact.”
