MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of St. John Francis Regis Parish is to foster a family of faith, built on yesterday's foundation, so that today's spirituality, service, and education will continue to grow into tomorrow's Catholic community.

"Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and tomorrow."

St. John of Avila, Pray for us!

May 6th: St Francois Laval de Quebec (1623-1708) was a distinguished French priest who couldn't reach Vietnamese missions so he was appointed to Quebec missions instead. He fought for 49 years in brutal pioneer Quebec to assist the "first peoples", build a seminary as first bishop to the city. We prayed at his tomb in the Cathedral.

May 7th: St Flavia Domitilla (90+) was the proconsul's niece and was preaching Jesus Christ! The emperor needed to make an example of her and she died in exile, banished to the island of Ponza.

Saints Alive!

May 8th: Bd Catherine of St. Augustine (1632-1688) is an amazing Augustinian nun who poured out her life in Quebec. She exemplifies high mysticism and exceptional nursing care to the pioneers of New France. Her spiritual director was the martyred Saint Jean de Brebeuf who would appear to her and from whom she takes dictation.

May 9th: St Pachomius (292-346) is the founder of all coenobitic (community dwelling) monasticism in the world. What an organizer and what a love for scripture! (which he would memorize by heart in long night-time vigils) He would inspire St Benedict of Nursia— and the rest is history!

May 10: Blessed Nicholas Albergati (1375-1443) The 'Angel of Peace' was his nickname—because of the uncanny way this Papal Legate and Carthusian monk from Bologna brought mediation to various warring city states. I like him since 1977 when I studied the beautiful real-life portrait of the saint executed by Jan van Eyck.

St. John of Avila (1500-1569) Spanish priest and mystic who just happened to have friends named St. Teresa of Avila and St. Ignatius of Loyola, St. Francis Borgia and St. John of God. He desired to preach in the missions of Mexico, but his bishop saw the success of his preaching and kept him in Andalusia.

Ecclesiastes 3:1-2, 8

For everything there is a season,
and a time for every purpose
under heaven: a time to be born,
and a time to die; a time to plant,
and a time to pluck up that which is planted. A time to love, and a time to hate; a time for war, and a time for peace.

Green Team Tips Grass lawns look good but offer minimal environmental benefits. Try to reduce your lawn acreage, let some areas grow a little wild, cut at 3" or more, minimize fertilizing, minimize weedkillers.
