MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of St. John Francis Regis Parish is to foster a family of faith, built on yesterday's foundation, so that today's spirituality, service, and education will continue to grow into tomorrow's Catholic community.

"Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and tomorrow."

St. Peter Damian

Feb 21: St. Peter Damian (1007-1072) This cardinal of the Church who was born in beautiful Ravenna, offered stinging rebukes to the pope: his major work, the Book of Sodom, is a book that could have been written in the 1980's instead of the 1050's. He is now a doctor of the Church.

St. Robert Southwell (1561-1595) a poet of great depth, this Jesuit martyr was quite a portrait artist as well. His own self-portrait from prison is as haunting as his poem, "Mary Magdalen's Funeral Tears" His execution was the turning point against the revolting 'drawing and quartering' popular in London.

Feb 22: St. Maximian of Ravenna (498-556) Back to Ravenna, this archbishop has a great mosaic that shows his visage —grim and severe— standing next to the empress Theodora at St. Vitalis' Basilica. He presided over the golden age of Ravenna for 10 years. His tomb is now in the Cathedral in Ravenna.

Saints Alive!

Bd. Isabel de France (1270) is the younger sister of St. Louis of France — an equal enthusiast of the crusades and the life style of the Franciscans — as was her more famous brother.

St. Margaret of Cortona (1247-1297) lived openly as a mistress for a wealthy nobleman for 9 years and at the ripe old age of 21, she has a massive conversion and becomes a penitential third order Franciscan. Do the math! She is beloved by all who seek freedom from the sins of the flesh.

Feb 23: St. Polycarp (69-155) St. Irenaeus of Lyons knew St. Polycarp as a child growing up in Smyrna (Izmir, Turkey) the acts of his martyrdom are an eyewitness account written by a scribe with a stylus on wax tablet. It is beautiful to watch the sunset in Izmir and imagine the faith of this 86 year old martyr burned at the stake for the sake of Christ. "...And so we took up his bones, more precious than stones of great price, more splendid than gold, and laid them where it seemed right....we assemble there to celebrate, with joy, each year, his birthday into heaven."

Feb 25: Bd. Sebastian Aparicio (1502-1600). Rags to riches story: he was a poor Spanish shepherd who made it big in Puebla, Mexico in road construction. He married (twice). See his shrine and relics in Puebla...he died at the age of 98.

BB. Luigi Versaglia e Callisto Caravario (1930+) were Salesian missionaries and friends of St. John Bosco who were martyred for the faith in Shiu-Chow, China while defending women from rapists.

Feb 26: St. Porphry of Gaza (353-421) was a zealous bishop in Gaza City who destroyed paganism and brought the wholesale conversion of the region to Christianity.

Ecclesiastes 3:1-2, 8

For everything there is a season,
and a time for every purpose
under heaven: a time to be born,
and a time to die; a time to plant,
and a time to pluck up that which is planted. A time to love, and a time to hate; a time for war, and a time for peace.
