MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of St. John Francis Regis Parish is to foster a family of faith, built on yesterday's foundation, so that today's spirituality, service, and education will continue to grow into tomorrow's Catholic community.

"Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and tomorrow."

St. Ippolito Galantini

Mar 20: St. Ippolito Galantini (1565-1619), even as a child he could memorize and repeat whole sermons. He was a lay catechist and taught CCD to the poor in Florence.

And St. John Nepomuk (1393) is the patron saint of Prague, martyred for keeping the seal of confession. St. John Neumann of Philadelphia's fame was named for this prophetic priest.

Mar 21: St. Nicholas von Flüe (1417-1487) was a Swiss married man with 10 children who became a hermit and lived as such an ascetic that he lived 20 years only on communion and became a mystic who gave wise teaching to all the cantons. His tomb is in Sachseln.

Mar 22: St. Nicholas Owen (1606) is a Jesuit lay-brother who constructed the most ingenious hiding holes for priests. He was stretched in terrible agony till his body burst open. He would reveal no secrets under such torture.

Mar 23: St. Turibio of Mogrovejo (1538-1606) was a contemporary and the holy reforming bishop of Lima Peru as Charles Borromeo was for Milan, Italy; he personally baptized and confirmed 500,000 – including Rose of Lima and Martin de Porres.

And Bd. Rebecca (or Rafqa) Al-Rayes (1832-1914) was a Lebanese religious sister who united her sufferings to the passion of Christ for 29 years as she asked to be afflicted by painful illness.

Mar. 24: St. Catherine of Vadstena (1331-1381) is the daughter of St. Bridget of Sweden. She told St. Catherine of Siena, that after her mother's death, 'she forgot how to smile' – so intense was the bond of mother and daughter. She brought her mom's relics back to Sweden for veneration.

Mar 25: St. Dismas has always been popular with those who want to know a saint of the "last-minute-conversion": it doesn't get any better than the good thief who dies on the cross with Jesus, washed in the blood of Christ and his outstretched hand of mercy.

And St. Margaret Clitherow (1586) is the married woman and martyr who marvelously gave her life rather than reveal the whereabouts of the priests whom she would hide. The Mass was the source of her joy.

And St. Lucia Filippini (1672-1732) who was quickly dubbed the Maestra Santa – or holy teacher – her school sisters are a powerful force in worldwide catechesis.

Ecclesiastes 3:1-2, 8

For everything there is a season,
and a time for every purpose
under heaven: a time to be born,
and a time to die; a time to plant,
and a time to pluck up that which is planted. A time to love, and a time to hate; a time for war, and a time for peace.
