MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of St. John Francis Regis Parish is to foster a family of faith, built on yesterday's foundation, so that today's spirituality, service, and education will continue to grow into tomorrow's Catholic community.

"Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and tomorrow."

St. Leonard

November 6: St. Leonard de Noblac (sixth century). Shout out to the mysterious saint who gives his name to St. Leonard's Creek and Leonardtown. Patron Saint of POWs.

Bd. Jeanne de Maille (1332-1414) Patron saint of those who visit POW's. Go figure. Died at the age of 82.

November 7: Bd. Anthony Baldinucci (1665-1717) is my favorite Jesuit saint who preached with such dramatic force that pornography, cards and dice would be heaped up into bonfires of the vanities. He died of exhaustion at the age of 52.

November 8: Bd. John Duns Scotus (1265-1308) is the Scottish Franciscan who gave us the theological framework for the Immaculate Conception; he died at the age of 43 in Köln where his relics are venerated to this day in the Cathedral.

Saints Alive!

Quatuor Coronati (306+). Four martyred stonemasons – from what is now Mitrovica – whose relics were brought to Rome for the great Basilica on the Coelian Hill.

Bd. Elizabeth of the Trinity (1880-1906) is the brilliant French Carmelite from Dijon whose mystical writings on the Trinity are astonishing. She offered her sufferings with Addison's Disease and perished at the age of 26.

November 10: St. Leo the Great (461+) highlight of his career: the tome of Leo --sent to the council of Chalcedon-- that was so brilliant that the theologians cried out, "Peter has spoken through the mouth of Peter!"

St. Andrew Avellino (1512-1608). Neapolitan Theatine Counter-Reformation priest and friend of St. Carlo Borromeo. Shout out to Fr. Avellino González.

Nov. 11: St. Martin de Tours (336-397) "the glory of ancient Gaul and a light to the Western Church in the 4th century" had a great biographer in the person of Sulpicius Severus. Born in Hungary, educated in Pavia, conscripted soldier in Amiens, famous exorcist, and then a glorious bishop in Poitiers; he is the one made famous for cutting his army cloak on a freezing winter day and clothing a half-naked beggar who was indeed 'Christ in disguise'. He is the patron saint of military chaplains.

Nov 12: St. Josaphat (1580-1623). I always make a bee-line to venerate his body at St. Peter's in Rome. Born in Western Ukraine, he fought to create the Uniate Church (Orthodox liturgy with allegiance to Rome).

Ecclesiastes 3:1-2, 8

For everything there is a season, and a time for every purpose under heaven: a time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted. A time to love, and a time to hate; a time for war, and a time for peace.

The St. John's Charitable Society (SJCS) continues to serve our community through the aid of your donations. Unfortunately, the charitable funds throughout the community including here at the SJCS are running low.

We need your help to continue to serve the needy in our community. As many local organizations are experiencing heavier than normal volume of calls for help, we are finding that many of our callers need more help financially than we are able to provide. The chart below shows how SJCS has answered the call for aid in our local community, helping the needy avoid eviction or water and electricity shut off.

We ask that you consider donating to the St. John's Charitable Society so we can continue to assist the local St. Mary's residents. At SJCS we are grateful for your continued financial support and prayers as we help those in need.
